DETROIT CAPTURES FAST PITCHERS' DUEL

Hall, the Recruit Hurler, Has Shad on Jim Scott, White Sox Losing Last Game of Series.

TY COBB OUT OF THE GAME

Chicago, June 1.-Hail. Detroit's sta-secruit, shaded Jim Scott in a pitchers recruit, shaded Jim Scott in a pitchers'duel this afternoon, the Tigers winning the last game of the series, I to 0. Hall held the White Sox sluggers to four widely scattered hits. Zeider, the only widely scattered hits. Zeider, the only man to reach third base, perishing in an attempted ateal home. Detroit scored the only run of the game in the sixth huning, when, with two out, Scott web-heed and passed Louden, who stole sec-ond and rode home on Moriarty's single cond and rode home on Moriarty's single perishic-center. If you are born on this data, the secret of your success in life will depend on two important things. You must be honest with yourself. You have faults which must be gravely and earnestly studied and corrected. Do this and the way is often to your desire. These people have two distinct natures constantly at war with each other-in other words, they are always at war with thimselves and, until higher nature wine out, there is unhappiness, uncest and discord.
